

Going Mad Over Mad Jack

Redeem your privilege card at Mad Jack Café or Ngee Ann Polytechnic, Blk 52, #07-01, to enjoy a special discount of 30% on weekdays, and 10% on weekends and public holidays.

Those Australia.com ads, where kangaroos bound off a golf course, fireworks equal turning on the lights, and a waterplane is your taxi waiting, must have made you yearning to Go Down Under. Dreams such as these may seem unreal, given your time and budgetary constraints, but there's an alternative that's just as great. Soy 'G'day Mate! to Mad Jack Café, where you'll surely find the most mouth-watering Australian Fish & Chips.

Dubbed 'Aussie's Best Fish & Chips', the dish uses a secret recipe that will make your stomach do the Wotting Matilda of just a whiff of this tantalising dish. The good thing about Mad Jack's Fish & Chips is the absolute absence of a strong fishy smell. Plus, their batter is thin, light and not oily, making it a healthier choice. Pay only $6.90, for a nice big Aussie-sized serving, making it a definitely delicious deal.

Apart from their fantastic Australian Fish & Chips, Mad Jack also serves a wide range of Western dishes, such as Pasta and Steak, which promise to leave you craving for more.

If you're a health-conscious diner, this café will be a great choice for you. Firstly, the food has no MSG, and secondly, they serve a wide range of health juices, made from ingredients like cucumbers or tomatoes. Just in case it isn't clear what they can do for you, the juices come in names such as "Weight Watchers" and "Complexion Enhancer".

And now that you've been so good, your body can afford to indulge in their scrumptious desserts, which are also to die for.

Sample their banana crumble topped with a scoop of vanilla ice cream, and you will feel an ecstatic rush go through your taste buds, as both the vanilla and banana melt together to create a cosmic collision in your mouth.

Chocolate cake lovers must surely try the Chocolate Delight. The cake is so rich that in one bite, you will feel like you're swimming in a pool of chocolate fondue.

Apart from Mad Jack, Mr Jack Chin also owns five different PK Xpress outlets. PK Xpress also sells Fish & Chips and other great dishes, and it was from here that Jack formulated the recipe for Mad Jack's version of their Australian Fish & Chips.

Expect to spend between $4 and $10 at both Mad Jack's and PK Xpress.

But, just for NP staff and students, you can redeem your privilege card and present it at Mad Jack Café to enjoy a special membership discount of 30% on weekdays, and 10% on weekends and public holidays.

And if that's not enough to entice you, Jack believes in the standard of his food so much, he says that if you're not happy with it, you can get your money back, guaranteed.

So why wait for the next vacation to travel down under, when you can find Australia in Mad Jack?
